Why Jesus Came and Why Are You Still Here?

The image features two black silhouettes against a soft, textured background of light green and blue. On the left, a larger silhouette of a man with long hair and a beard, wearing a robe, stands on a grassy hill. He is gesturing with his right hand towards a smaller silhouette of another man standing on the right. The background has a painterly, watercolor-like texture with a subtle glow.

Review . . .

Because Jesus knew and perfectly completed His role as redeemer, we can live our lives before God with Clarity, Confidence and Courage.

God Never Intended the Message of the Gospel to Lie Dormant in Our Lives. It was always intended to Be a Message We Proclaim.

Jesus Seeks to Prepare Us For the Mission He Sends Us On.

Jesus restores us, so that in freedom we can serve Him on mission.

Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time. Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you.

Be self-controlled and alert. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. Resist him, standing firm in the faith, because you know that your brothers throughout the world are undergoing the same kind of sufferings.

Why Jesus Came and Why Are You Still Here?

The background of the slide is a textured, painterly style with shades of green and blue. In the lower-left corner, there are black silhouettes of two figures standing on a grassy hill. The figure on the left is taller and has long hair, with arms outstretched in a gesture of teaching or blessing. The figure on the right is shorter and has curly hair, with arms crossed. The overall mood is contemplative and spiritual.
